

Who's In The Odd Socks

A song by Andy and the Odd Socks

These song sheets and activities contain the British Sign Language (BSL) signs for key-words in the “Who’s in the Odd Socks” song.

The BSL signs have been chosen to convey the main meanings with the appropriate phrases from the song as a guide beneath the key signs - many of these are repeated throughout the song.

They show the important message of the song - if you’re feeling down and you’ve lost your way, turn that frown upside down and smile.

Remember you’re not alone - sing along and join the crew and be an Odd Socks too.

Dance and sing and jump around.

A timely reminder that we’re all in this together and need to help and support each other!

For all you children, brothers and sisters, mums and dads and grandparents, please join in and learn some signs. The on-line dictionary BSL SignBank is a helpful reference to see signs demonstrated, including those in this resource.

Scan the QR code to link to the video of the song and sing and sign along.

Dance and sign and express yourself!

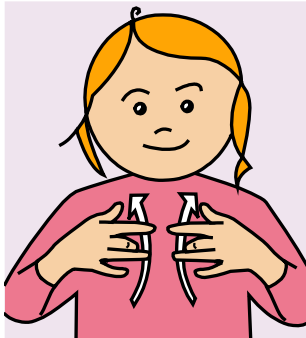

You can use these signs in your own conversations when using BSL and when using Sign Supported English (SSE). ENJOY!
